

Assisting Individuals and Groups in Crisis

Basic Critical Incident Stress Management Training

Course Description

The Bureau of Indian Affairs, National Office Branch of Wildland Fire in partnership with the Southwest Coordinating Group are hosting a Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) Basic Training course February 18-21, 2020 in Mesa, Arizona.

Program highlights: Individuals will be trained to identify with their peers who have experienced a critical incident. The course provides training in positive coping strategies for stress, and to help others validate their thoughts and emotions surrounding a critical incident.

This course will prepare participants to understand a wide range of crisis intervention services. Participants will leave with the knowledge and tools to provide several group and individual crisis intervention strategies and tactics under oversight of a licensed mental health professional.
